

Youth Missions International is a faith-based training organization empowering young people to continually live and share their faith in the global communities they serve.

YMI provides churches and individual young people (junior high-college age) with opportunities to evangelize locally, regionally and internationally through short-term mission training and mission experiences.

“But you will receive power when the Holy Spirit comes on you; and you will be my witnesses in Jerusalem, and in all Judea and Samaria, and to the ends of the earth.”

Acts 1:8

THE YMI IMPACT

TRAINING/ SENDING YOUTH

To date, YMI has conducted 22 training camps in eight states, training over 1,000 youth from 14 different states.

INTEGRATING VOCATION AND FAITH

YMI has provided eight summer internships for college-age young adults with a vision for integrating their vocation with their faith.

SHARING THE GOSPEL

Over the past three summers, our YMI teams have shared the Gospel with non-believers in 11 countries on five continents, generating 2,000 professions of faith- an average of ten per participant.

CONNECTING THE CHURCH WITH ITS COMMUNITY

Both at home and abroad, YMI is helping churches effectively connect with the communities they serve. For example, in Brazil YMI helped give a church in Atibaia a vision for reaching their community through sports. As a direct result of this ministry, God has brought many of the street kids into a relationship with Him.

PLANTING SISTER ORGANIZATIONS

God gave the indigenous missionary we partner with in Atibaia and São Paulo a vision for establishing a YMI sister organization in Brazil using sports to share the Gospel. As a result, “YMI Brasil” was founded in March 2010. Ministry Partners in nations on two other continents also have a vision for starting YMI sister organizations.

2010 Annual Report

Youth Missions International: More than a mission trip.

This past year, YMI grew far beyond anticipated prior to our fourth birthday. Over the past three years, YMI has rapidly expanded as we train and send young people to serve in the domestic and international mission field. While many blessings from God have astonished us, one event truly represents a milestone for our organization. In March of 2010, two years before we had planned, our first sister organization, YMI Brasil, was born. This was almost three years to the day after YMI began.

Almost immediately, YMI Brasil started to partner with local churches near São Paulo, Brazil to begin outreach ministry in their community. In addition, as a result of a mission team our U.S. ministry sent in 2008, a church in Brazil held the first YMI Brasil mission training. They sent a team to another part of their country. I want to thank all of you who have prayed for and financially supported our ministry. Without your generosity none of this would be possible. This is only the beginning. As YMI continues to expand around the world, more young people will be challenged and mobilized to live and share their faith in the communities they serve.

Our Vision

A worldwide network of youth-training organizations that empowers young people to spend their lives passionately living and sharing their faith in the global communities they serve.

By training teens and young adults and then challenging them to lead evangelistic ministry, YMI is providing opportunities for youth to experience the power of God as they share the gospel both at home and around the world. Our training, preparation and ministry leave an indelible imprint on the lives of YMI participants and they emerge confident, mission-minded leaders with an awakened passion for serving God and putting their faith into action.

Youth Missions International is seizing the opportunity to fill an international void by replicating our ministry in countries all over the world. We seek to plant sister organizations on six continents, giving indigenous missionaries a proven program for developing the next generation of Christian leaders.
